

“Deals face a hushed summer.”

(FT June 29 2011)

We’ve turned up the volume.

The FT got it right. The summer was quiet for mergers and acquisitions. Not for Burness. Our clients have been busy. Very busy, in fact. With smart thinking and impeccable execution, the Corporate Finance team at Burness has advised on a number of very impressive, high profile deals this summer. Have a look at some of them below. When it comes to deals, we don’t like being quiet.

Advising AIM listed SeaEnergy PLC

on the £42m disposal of its 80% interest in its offshore wind farm development subsidiary, SeaEnergy Renewables Limited, to Repsol Nevas Energias SA.

Advising oil and gas exploration company Lansdowne Oil & Gas plc on its £6.1m placing of new shares on AIM.

Advising Touch Bionics

on its £2.5m round of equity investment to enable it to implement its global expansion plans.

Advising Korean conglomerate E-Land World

on its acquisition of the entire share capital of Borders textile business Lochcarron John Buchan Limited, as part of its global M&A strategy.

Advising the vendors of Scottish Food Quality Certification Limited on their sale to Certus Compliance Limited, backed by Canter Equity.

Advising whisky distiller, Glen Grant, and parent, Davide Campari - Milano S.p.A.

on the rationalisation of the group structure in the UK.

Advising iconic retailer Liberty Limited

on its acquisition of the entire share capital of British luxury heritage brand Christy’s & Co Hat Company, including all funding related aspects.

Advising the shareholders of S3 Interactive Limited on its sale to Australian Securities Exchange and New York Stock Exchange listed Sims Metal Management.

Advising Scottish Enterprise

on its participation in Aquamarine Power’s recent £7m funding round alongside SSE Venture Capital and ABB and on its participation in a further £18m funding package.

Advising Maxim Integrated Products Inc,

a NASDAQ listed manufacturer of highly integrated analog and mixed signal semi-conductor systems, on its acquisition of the entire share capital of Calvatec Limited.

Advising Maxim Integrated Products Inc

on its acquisition of the entire share capital of Genasic Design Systems Limited, a UK manufacturer of radio based integrated technology circuits.

Advising Pizza Hut (UK) Limited

on the sale of eight Pizza Hut franchise home delivery businesses based in Scotland.

Peter Lawson
Partner and Head of Corporate Finance
peter.lawson@burness.co.uk
+44 (0)131 473 6108

Grant Stevenson
Partner
grant.stevenson@burness.co.uk
+44 (0)141 273 6721

Chris Gotts
Partner
chris.gotts@burness.co.uk
+44 (0)131 473 6020

Tony Byrne
Partner
tony.byrne@burness.co.uk
+44 (0)141 273 6714

Mark Ellis
Partner
mark.ellis@burness.co.uk
+44 (0)131 473 6189

Walter Clark
Partner
walter.clark@burness.co.uk
+44 (0)131 473 6195